

DATA PRIVACY STATEMENT

The United Reformed Church (Wessex) Trust Limited ('Wessex Trust')

1. Personal data

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the 'GDPR').

2. Data Controller

The Trustees of the Wessex Trust are the Data Controller for the Wessex Trust meaning they decide how your personal data is processed and for what purposes. The Data Controller can be contacted using the Contact Details below.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The Data Controller of the Wessex Trust complies with its obligations under the 'GDPR' by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure; and, by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use personal data for the following purposes: -

- to maintain and update lists of office holders for churches of the Synod including Synod Representatives;
- to maintain and update lists of volunteers and committee members of the Synod;
- to maintain and update lists of the trustees of the Wessex Trust;
- to provide oversight of ministers (Ministers should also refer to the Privacy Policy for Ministers and Church Related Community Workers available from the Ministries Department at Church House);
- administering grant and loan applications;
- to maintain our financial accounts and records;
- paying expenses;
- to provide news and information about events, activities and services within the Synod;
- to manage employees and volunteers;
- to manage safeguarding of children and adults at risk;
- to deal with complaints;
- to deal with general correspondence;
- managing properties;
- to arrange and manage training and training records;
- to arrange events, meetings and conferences;
- to maintain records including minutes of meetings;
- to enable the Synod to engage with other churches, charities and community groups within and outside our Synod area; and
- to provide contact details of officers and others with specific responsibilities (e.g. DBS signatories) to Church House. This enables the Synod and national administration of the United Reformed Church.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent; or
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement; or
- Processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, or scientific and historical research purposes or statistical purposes; or
- Explicit consent of the data subject has been given.

5. Sharing personal data

Personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the Synod or with the Wessex Trust in order to carry out a service to a church, a church member or for purposes connected with the Wessex Synod or with the Wessex Trust. We will only share your data with third parties with your consent.

6. How long do we keep data?
